Life-long Learners

Last Monday saw the staff taking part in a training day, aimed at raising achievement.

The staff got chance to work with colleagues to look how practical resources can help reinforce the learning of a child.

The photographs show the staff looking at the varied resources, used to help teach maths.

Interactive resources to use ICT across the curriculum

Our staff had an opportunity to use a new resources, purchased by the school. The award winning website supports the school curriculum and engages the children through the use of a computer. If you would like to look at the resources please visit
