

JUNIOR TRINITY SUMMER CHAPEL CONCERT

SAT 18 MAY 17.30h

A selection of Junior Trinity students showcase the year's achievements in their final Chapel Concert of the year. The concert will feature a varied programme of early music to contemporary works, featuring baroque trios and string quartets as well as a new work by London based composer James Moriarty, performed by the Composers Ensemble.

Final year Junior Trinity student Daniel Lauro makes his conducting debut with the overture from Gioachino Rossini's The Barber of Seville performed by the Junior Trinity Chamber Orchestra and soprano Holly Smith sings 'Poor Wand'ring One' from Gilbert and Sullivan's The Pirates of Penzance.

Old Royal Naval College Chapel

Admission FREE, no booking required

https://www.trinitylaban.ac.uk/whats-on/junior-trinity-summer-chapel-concert?dm_i=1OT3,6951L,U4ISOV,ONP5U,1